PROFESSIONAL STATEMENT

Carrie has been working in the field since 1999. She has experience in a variety of mental health settings: psychosocial rehabilitation; case management assisting individuals and families who were experiencing homelessness; in the prison as a mental health counselor, sex offender treatment specialist, and suicide prevention/intervention instructor; in residential treatment providing therapy services to adolescents who had experienced significant trauma, certified trainer in safe crisis management; and as a school-based counselor in York. Outside of Carrie's clinical experiences, she has been a volunteer and advocate for different child welfare organizations. Carrie's playful spirit helps her connect with children and adolescents. She has an eclectic style and can easily adjust to the specific needs and learning styles
